

Newcastle – 4 June

Rector: Myrtle Morrison

- We give thanks for the many visitors to Newcastle over the summer months and we pray that they will be refreshed in body, mind and spiritually.
- We give thanks for our new weekly Parent and Toddler Group as we build links with families in the local community.
- We pray for outreach events planned over the summer months that they may be fruitful in sharing God's love with visitors and the local community.
- We pray for a joint church summer scheme "Cornerstone" for children and young people running the first week in August.
- We pray for our fundraising efforts to build a kitchen and toilet facilities at St Colman's church.

Newry – 11 June

Rector: Scott McDonald

- Please pray for the Parish of St. Patrick, that with Spirit filled generosity and courage it will increasingly become a Light on a Hill for the city of Newry and beyond.
- Please pray for the Parish of St. Mary, that as the church in the heart of Newry it will powerfully display that it holds the city of Newry in its heart.
- Please pray for our Pioneer Evangelist (Newry Centre of Mission), Laurence Bellew, and his exciting and far-reaching ministry with schools, sports clubs, kids' gyms and other organisations and church fellowships. Please pray too, for the informal services which he leads, along with his wife, Millie.
- Please pray for the work of God to increase in the city of Newry over the summer months.
- Praise God for the amazing people who lead our children's and family outreach work and for their creativity, passion, and hard work.

Diocesan Synod – 18 June

Taking place on Thursday 23 June in The Jethro Centre, Lurgan

- We pray for Bishop David in his leadership of the diocese and as he delivers his Presidential address to Synod.
- For the presence of the Holy Spirit in all the proceedings and that Synod members, clerical and lay, would be guided into wise decisions.
- We pray for the mission and unity of the diocese, that we would go forward together with purpose and courage.

Seagoe – 25 June

Rector: Terence Cadden, Associate Minister: Stuart Moles

- We give thanks for God's protection thus far in the journey through Covid and for people returning to worship and fellowship.
- Give thanks for the 'Seagoe team' of staff and the many volunteers who continue to help us develop the life and witness of the parish.
- Pray for our summer outreach and in particular, our door to door on Wednesday evenings.
- For our Queen's Jubilee program - for many people to engage, including the wider community.
- Pray for the Select Vestry, and others, as we seek God's direction in preparing for the autumn season of outreach, discipleship and witness.
- For the Select Vestry as it continues to plan for major redevelopment of the interior of the church building.
- Pray for Seagoe Youth Group as it continues to work with the Department of Education in the rebuilding of our Church Hall and Youth Centre in Killicomaine Estate.

Thank you for praying
