- for those who have in various ways and roles used their gifts and talents as we have adapted to new ways of ministry and outreach.

Pray for

- those who are anxious, those who are lonely or feel isolated, those who are ill and those who have been bereaved, and for all who provide pastoral care and support.
- our community outreach initiatives, as we seek to help and encourage people in these challenging times.
- for the staff team and volunteers, for refreshment and renewal, equipping and enabling.
- wisdom for the government and those making decisions and that people will act wisely and responsibly as we seek to protect one another and reduce the spread and impact of the virus.

- That we as a church will build relationships and help focus on mission, especially to those who have reconnected with All Saints Tullylish during lockdown.
- That there will be a revival/renewal/awakening in people's lives to find new life through Jesus.
- That as rector, I would be faithful to God's call to be loving, caring, present and have integrity in following and sharing God's word in teaching, pastoral care and being with those in any kind of need.
